

Physics 391
Lesson 11 Preflight

1. Explain why your right hand looks like a left hand in a planar mirror, but your fingers and palm don't switch places.
2. How is the paraxial approximation applied to mirrors in your book? In other words, how does it simplify the mathematics?
3. Compare the images made by convex and concave mirrors to those made by lenses.